Mrs. Marguerite Haugh of Indianapolis Testifies in Divorce Suit Against Husband

TRIAL BEGINS AT NOON TODAY

Plaintiff, Native of France, Testifies to Marriage Two Months After Meeting Haugh

The alleged unkind treatment of a mother for the first time, was set Indianapolis, a native of France, when she went on the witness stand this afternoon at the opening of the trial of her divorce suit against J. Guy Haugh, wealthy Indianapolis real estate owner and business man, n the circuit court. The case was filed in Indianapolis and sent here on change of venue.

Mrs. Haugh betrayed her nationality in her speech. She talked in a ow tone, sometimes haltingly, but always with careful enunciation. She was very careful not to omit any detais of her story of their life together. She snapped her fingers to emphasize a point and frequently shrugged her shoulders and made gestures with her arms.

The litte back-eyed, curly-headed boy of Mrs. Haugh's interrupted the trial on one occasion when he perhis mother could not be heard. He ilked about the court room pounded with pencils, banged tables and struck his father's attorneys over the knuckles with a pencil. Finally, Judge Sparks asked the litde boy to remain with his mother's attorneys, and after he was severey corrected by his mother, almost to the point of crying, he was persmaded to leave the room.

Mrs. Haugh testified that they were married in September, 1902 and lived together for a period of seven years. She testified that she was 32 years old and came to this country nine years ago to teach French but upon her return to France two years later, she met Mr. Haugh on the boat and became infatuated over him and he over her. Upon the arrival at France, they were together, and upon their return to America a month later, they were married in New York City after knowing each other for only two months. She said that he promsed to have a very simple wedding but the affair was very expensive, the total cost ranging around $700,-

After the marriage, she stated that they lived in New York for some time and later went to Indianapolis to live in Mr. Haugh's home of 19 rooms, which were unfurnished, and Mr. Haugh against her will spent many, many thousands of dollars in redecorating and furnishing the house. She declared that at several different times she inquired of Mr. Haugh concerning his financial standing but he always said he was able to do all he wanted to . She stated that he gave her everything except love and that was what she wanted instead of money.

They later moved to Central Avenue and here he erected a fence. everything but that which money couldn't buy. There was some trouble over a letter he received from his mother while living here, she said, but the first real trouble was when they had a quarrel over Mr. street, formerly occupied by Mrs. Haugh's relations with a stenogra-W. O. Headlee who is moving to pher he had in his employ. She wanted him to dismiss the girl the witness said, but he absolutely reently bought the property being fused to do so. She stated that for eight months they quarreled over this girl and at times she was stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acidstomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains-headaches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lum-bago, pains around the heart and in

One of the worst features of acid-acid-stomach is the real cause of the

Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, No matter how good or wholesome easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest dis-comfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets-they are good to eat-just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloat out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach miseries. Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health -if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food-if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor-do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day

CREEK, COUNCIL HOUSE PASSES

Heir to Centuries of Creek Lore Will be Turned Into a Museum and Park

SEAT OF TRIBAL JUSTICE

Execution Tree Stands Only a Short Distance From House Where Comrades Were Executed

(By United Press.)

Okmulgee, Okla., May 6.-Today he last chance passed for any 'reek citizen of Okmulgee to protest the $100,000 bond issue that takes from the great chiefs their ast tribal property.

The Creek Council House, for 41 years seat of tribal justice and heir to centuries of Creek lore, probably will become a museum and the grounds a municipal park.

The glory of a race that once ranged North America from New York to the Gulf has passed. Its people rapidly are merging in the melting pot of the great Southwest.

As a branch of the Algenquins, the Creeks sided with the English against the Thirteen Colonies, Forced westward by the surge of white settlers, they became the backbone of the Indian uprising that General end of the war of 1812.

In 1832, after they ceded Alaoama to the United States, they reeived a grant of 5,000,000 acres n Oklahoma and builded their first og council house near where the present structure stands, and on this site transpired some of the afterward died of a broken heart.

It was here the oratory of David Anderson in 1893 saved the lives of Chief Legis Perryman and his treasurer, Sam Grayson, Three thousand braves, incensed at depreciation in the national warrants is sued as currency, had seized the chiefs and insurrection brooded for several days despite utmost efforts

From the second-story doorway of the Council House, Anderson harrangued the braves, and his plea to await counsels of the Great White Father at Washington broke

Not far away still stands the Execution Tree, where Creeks conlemned by the council died.

Sale of the Council House is fulfillment of the supplementary treaty made between the Dawes commission and the Creeks in 1902, which provided the city should have the first chance to buy the building.

Since Oklahoma became a state in 1906, the tribe has been ruled by the county government, and its capitol building used as the Okmulgee

Although years ago the tribe sold fifth of its domain at 30 cents an acre, it still holds some of the richest oil lands in Oklahoma.

If Your Nerves Are Shaky Because of Over-Indulgence in Tobacco or Alcohol or by Excess of Any Kind, Bio-Feren is What You Need Right Away.

Don't grow old before your time, don't let nervousness wreck your happiness or chances in life. The man with strong, steady nerves is full of vigor, energy, ambition and confidence.

You can have nerves of steel, firm step, new courage and keen mind by putting your blood and nerves in first-class shape with mighty Bio-Feren, a new discovery, inexpensive and efficient.

Men and women who get up so tired in the morning that they have to drag themselves to their daily labor will in just a few days arise with clear mind, definite purpose and loads of ambition.

All you have to do is to take two Bio-Feren tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—7 a day for 7 days—then reduce to one after each meal until all are gone.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't doubled, if your mind isn't keener and eyes brighter, if you don't feel twice as ambitious as before, any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely.

Bio-Feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anaemic men and women ever offered and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand-sell many pack-

Contain all the art, beauty and fineness of coloring of the Oriental, but

AT A MERE FRACTION OF THE PRICES OF ORIENTAL

Knowing the appeal which the beauty and practicability of the Oriental Rug makes to the artistic home maker we have endeavored to give to our public

A Rug just as well made as the Oriental, just as beautiful, and with the same wearing qualities as the finest Persian carpet, but at a fraction of the prices of the hand-woven Oriental.

We feel safe in saying that Whittall/ Anglo-Persian Rugs are all of this, because they have long stood unequalled at the very apex of Carpet excellence, and are the most successful rival of Oriental Rugs manufactured in America or elsewhere.

This year we show the largest assortment of Whittall Rugs that we have ever had, and the newest and choicest designs. Among them you will find exact copies of the finest Persian Carpets, such as Antique Kashans, Kabistans, Kazaks, Soumaks, Gorevans, Saruks, Kermanshahs, Sennahs and many other fine pieces recognized by experts and connoisseurs as the superior of all other designs.

We wish to emphasize the fact through the very extensive and particular study which the Whittall designers have given these rugs the colorings and patterns have been reproduced with greater perfection and more minute fidelity to the originals than ever before.

Anglo-Persian Rugs are adapted to all uses in the home; and are shown in tones that will harmonize with any scheme. The size range is large.

Joe Brooks is a shiftless clerl who keeps his wife in poverty in a modest flat. He blames every body but himself because he does not get ahead and one day he steals a large sum of money from his employer, a savage old ship chandler. When the theft is discovered Brooks begs his wife to square matters with the old man who agrees to grant Brooks immunity from punishment provided the wife pays the

Mrs. Brooks is secretly loved by Jimsy Smith, a breezy Westerner and when he hears of the incident he offers to repay the old man the sum stolen from him and when he refuses, he threatens to kill him it he takes advantage of the suffering wife. Then he hands her a letter has given this to her husband, she organs. leaves him. Brooks then shoots himself and the widow finds happiness in Smith's love.

HAT luxury is brutish bigness, which means weight, which means a large gasoline tank and filled often, and large tires, and several sets a year.

Maxwell is neither a big car nor a small car. The biggest car made is less than 4 feet longer, and costs around $10,000 to buy and $5,000 a year to run.

Most cars are just a foot or a few inches longer.

And others are some smaller—shorter, lighter, less roomy, and hence lack the luxury of a Maxwell.

Nor do they cost, on the average, less to run.

Gas mileage is very nearly the same. Tire mileage is very nearly the same.

But where Maxwell earned its crowning reputation has been in its ability to run and run and never quit.

That means repair bills are amazingly low.

You therefore never get mad at a Maxwell—it's the best friend your pocketbook has. And when you stop to think of all those little points of luxury in a Maxwell you're almost sure to whip out your check book and write a check for one.

The 300.000-all-alike idea behind the Maxwell thus, you see, is sound.

Janesville Two-Row Cultivator

HEN you sit comfortably on the easy riding Janesville Two-Row, and see every plant in every row getting exactly the cultivation you want it to have, you think what a blessing it is that you have a machine to do all that work. The old timers would think so if they could see you getting over the field so rapidly, and doing the work better than they ever did.

The Janesville Floating Arches solve the problem. They are hung by pendulums from the top bar and swing from side to side with a pendulum movement. You widen or narrow the gangs in the row with your feet. Or lock them at any width desired.

The shovels naturally follow the rows, but you can shift them to either side so quickly and so easily that you can hoe every hill without stopping the team.

Your own weight on the seat bars acts as a lever to turn the wheels slightly up hill—this big advantage takes the down-hill creep out of side-hill plowing. The entire machine is light, compact, flexible—no oiling needed except in wheel boxes.

Cultivate with a Janesville Two-Row—and you will forget that there ever was hard work in cultivation.

Glodys Kirkpatrick, daughter of Milton W. and Margaret A. Osborn was born at Connersville Indiana February 24, 1889.

She died of influenza pneumonia at her late home two miles west of Mays Indiana in Center Township, Rush County Indiana at 11:15 A. M. Saturday December 21, 1918aged 29 years 9 months and 27 days.

She was the wife of Pendleton H. marriage Oct. 2, 1909 at Covington Kentucky, Rev. N. H. Carlisle offi-

To this union two children were born, John Wendel who will be eight vears old Jan. 19, 1919, and Floreta whose birthday happens upon the day of her mother's funeral, Dec. 23, 1918-she is seven.

The deceased has two sisters, Maud, the wife of Fred Jackson, and Myrta, the wife of Berry Rush. Her father and mother, sisters and many other relatives and friends remain to mourn her loss. Her's was a well ordered life. Always an affectionate, lovable sweet tempered child, she grew into a noble conscientious womanhood.

In her youth she gave her heart to Christ obeying him in the simplicity of the gospel and was added to the church worshiping at Center, Rush County Indiana, Aug. 7, 1904, J. C Hall, minister. She loved the church and spiritual things. She endeavored to live the Christian ife, and expressed a wish, as she felt her life slipping away and realized that she would soon leave her children, calling them, "my babies" requesting that they be brought up in the Sunday school.

I. W. W. CONVENTION OPENS.

Chicago, May 6—Led by well known radicals from all parts of the country, the national convention of the I. W: W. opened here Monday for a ten days session. Following a brief argument at the first session the convention voted to throw the meeting 'wide open'. Radicals said they had nothing to conceal and were going to publish full information of their doings.

The Cash Value of Public Opinion

Like a dirty, frayed collar on a man in a $60.00 suit, an "untidy" fence discounts a fine farm in public opinion.

¶ And as a clean collar offsets to a great extent the frayed "hand-me-down," a Page fence adds dignity and prestige to the humblest farm home.

¶ Your banker, your storekeeper, your neighbors, the man who may be looking around to buy a farm—their opinions are based partly—sometimes strongly—upon what they see.

¶ And their opinions have a cash value that will be a big asset to you in your business transactions with them.

THE SIGN OF A GOOD FARMER

¶ But is also reliable evidence that the good farmer HAS A GOOD FARM. The reputation of your farm is a business asset which deserves protection.

Federal Council of the Churches in America Begins a Meeting at Cleveland

WILL CONTINUE THREE DAYS

General Wartime Service Will be Reviewed With a View of Doing After-war Work

(By United Press.)
Cleveland, May 6.—The federal council of the Churches of Christ in America, representing thirty-three denominations and 38,000,000 communicant members, convened here today. Meetings will continue through Thursday.

"From the World War to World Brotherhood" was the general theme discussed by the 200 Protestant church leaders of the country who are attending the convention. The churches of Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium and Switzerland, also are represented.

The general war time service of the council will be reviewed with a view to proposing an after-the-war program. The following four demands of the hour upon the church will be considered:

 A more effective proclamation of fundamental verities.
 A new sense of world responsibility.

3. An effort to understand the Christian cocial order in America.

Christian social order in America.
4. The increasing co-operation among the churches.

Tonight there will be a mass meeting in Grays armory, with an address by Robert E. Speer, chairman of the general war time commission of the council, upon the subject, "The Leadership of American Protestantism in the New Internationalism." The representative of the British churches also will make an address. The sessions of the council are being held in Euclid Avenue Baptist church.

Italian Premier and Foreign Minister Will Arrive in Time to Par-·ticipate in Ceremony

(By United Press.)

Vienna, May 6 .- Austrian and Hungarian delegates leave for the peace conference the end of this week, it was learned today. The party consists of thirty delegates and assistants, twenty secretaries and four newspaper correspondents.

Rome, May 6.-Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino left for Paris on a special train at teno'clock last night. A dispatch from Sebanico today said that all socities, in a mass meeting, passed a resolution declaring the city was annexed to thaly. This is the second Dalmatian city to declare annexation to Italy.

Paris, May 6.—The supreme economic council was directed today to draft plans for economic isolation of Germany, which will be employed by the allies in the event force is required to obtain Germany's signature to the peace treaty. Pending signing of the treaty; financial restrictions against Germany will'be relaxed.

With the Italians delegates speeding back to Paris, the final step was being taken today in preparing the peace breaty for presentation to the Germans tomorrow. This consisted of a secret plenary session of the conference at which the pact a search. was presented to the representatives of the lesser allied powers for ratification.

Premeir Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino, who left Rome last night, will arrive in ample time for participation in the ceremony of submitting the terms to the German delegates, scheduled for three o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Admission to this meeting will be the United States, Great Britain and her dominions, France, Italy, Japan. zecho-Blovak republic, with serretary each, six German delegates and newspaper correspondents. The latter will include thirty for the great allied powers and dominions, 10 for powers with special interests' and five Germans. President Wilson will head the American delegation and will be accompanied by Col. House. Secretary. Lansing, Henry White and General

The Hungarian peace delegates have been summoned to the conference, it was announced today. They are expected to arrive in St. Germain on May 15.

The Italian ambassador to France was given the seat of honor at vesterday's meeting of the organization committee of the league of nations on motion of Col. House. The next meeting was scheduled on the call of Secretary General Drummond. Further preliminaries possibly will be disposed of in London before the initial meeting of the league in Washington.

When the German delegates enter the dining room of the Hotel Trianon at Versailles at 3:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to receive the text of the treaty of peace, they will find the representatives of the powers arrayed against Germany awaiting them at one of the great tables in the room. From the reports, it develops that Mrs. Endicott left home some time last night or this morning and threw herself in the river, possibly unaware of what she was doing, as she left the house in her nightclothes. It was thought by some also that she had not been gone long as she had not drifted down stream for any great distance, her body being found directly opposite the pumping station.

Mr. Endicott said that last night upon retiring she was especially cheerful and was telling him how easy a pair of shoes, that he had bought that day, looked on his feet, and also remarked that their outlook for this spring was brighter than it had ever been before.

One of the neighbors stated, however, that she had heard Mrs. Endicott say that she did not care to live under the present conditions any longer and thought that the sooner she was out of the way the better off she would be

She is survived by the husband and her mother, Mrs. Mary Phlenis, who makes her home in Indianapolis. The arrangements for the funeral services have not been made.

L. N. Hines, state superintendent of public instruction, addressed a fairly large audience at the Graham Annex auditorium last night on The Public and its Schools," Two reels of motion pictures, exhibiting scenes along the Thames and in Japan, were also shown.

Mr. Hines in his talk asked for the hearty co-operation of the school patrons and the teachers. He stated that in the past the parents of the children were ignorant of the needs of the school but they are better educated now than then. There are still many, he stated, that need educating along these lines. When they are better educated in this respect, there will be fewer complaints made to the school board and the teachers, he added.

Supt. Hines also appealed to the patrons to spend more on the school. In comparing figures, he showed how little was really soon on the schools and its work in comparison to other things that were unnecessary. Schools and churches, he pointed out, were the least supported of any organiza-

By the figures he disclosed the there was an average of #2.80 pci into the school every year by the citizens of the state and less than that was paid to the churches, while there was an average of $12 paid out by each individual for tobacco and other things that were only luxuries. Fifteen cents was the amount given as the average each persons spend during the year for school books, while an average of 13 cents per person is expended for chewing gam. He pleaded to the patrons to wake up to the fact that the schools needed more attention than they were receiving.

James Holds and Sergt, George Montegue, a Frenchman, both accused of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, were arraigned before Judge Will M. Sparks late Morday afternoon and each placed under $1,000 bond. Neither entered a plea and waived a preliminary hearing, and both were sent back to jail, being unable to supply bomls.

Mantegue, a veteran of the war who has a stiff left knee and the right arm off at the elbow, was accused of having a wife at Newcastle when arraigned before the court, but he denied it. His friends who played with him at a show at a local theatre last week, declared Montegue had told them she was dead. Montegue took Elsie Hardin nge sixteen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hardin, to Indianapolis Saturday night, and her parents caused his arrest there Sunday. Montegue was brought to Rushville yesterday afternoon Sheriff Jones.

The Indianapolis police investiga ted the story Montegue told and declared that it was not true. The Frenchman fold the police there. according to Sheriff Jones, that be had met a girl in Newcastle and had married her in Indianapolis. He said that he had to leave, according to the police, and that he håd lost complete track of her though he had attempted to communicate with his wife.

Montegue is alleged to have told the police that he believed her to be dead when he ran away with the Hardin girl because he had read in an Indianapolis newspaper of a girl with the same name dieing in the St. Vincent hospital, Sheriff Jones says the Indianapolis police's inquiry developed that a girl with the name Montegue gave never died at St. Vincent's.

Mrs. Marquerite Haugh of Indianapolis Testifies in Divorce Suit Against Husband

TRIAL BEGINS AT NOON TODAY

The alleged unkind treatment of her husband after she had become a mother for the first time, was set forth by Mrs. Marguerite Haugh of Indianapolis, a native of France, when she went on the witness stand this afternoon at the opening of the trial of her divorce suit against J. Guy Haugh, wealthy Indianapolis real estate owner and business man, in the circuit court. The case was filed in Indianapolis and sent here on change of venue. Mrs. Haugh betrayed her nationality in her speech. She talked in a low tone, sometimes haltingly, but always with careful enunciation. She was very careful not to omit any detais of her story of their life together. She snapped her fingers to emphasize a point and frequently shrugged her shoulders and made gestures with her arms.

The litte back-eved, carly-headed boy of Mrs. Haugh's interrupted the trial on one accasion when he nersisted in making so much noise that his mother could not be heard. He walked about the court room, pounded with pencils, hanged fables and struck his father's attorney's over the knuckles with a pencil. Finally, Judge Sparks asked the little boy to remain with his mother's attorneys, and after he was severely corrected by his mother, almost to the point of crying, he was persunded to leave the room.

Mrs. Haugh testified that they were married in September, 1902 and lived together for a period of seven years. She testified that she was 32 years old and came to this country nine years ago to teach French but upon her return to France two years later, she met Mr. Haugh on the boat and became infatuated over him and he over her. Upon the arrival at France, they were together, and upon their return to America a month later, they were married in New York City affter knowing each other for only we months. She said that he pr ised to have a very simple wedding but the affair was very expensive, the total cost ranging around $700,-

After the marriage, she stated that they lived in New York for some time and later went to Indianapolis to live in Mr. Haugh's home of 19 rooms, which were unfurnished, and Mr. Haugh against her will spent many, many thousands of dollars in redecorating and furnishing the house. She declared that at several different times she inquired of Mr. Haugh concerning his financial standing but he always said he was able to do all he wanted to . She stated that he gave her everything except love and that was what she wanted instead of money.

They later moved to Central Avenue and here he erected a fence, as was the custom in France, that cost more than $800. While living there she said that she was given everything but that which money couldn't buy. There was some trouble over a letter he received from his mother while living here, she said, but the first real trouble was when they had a quarrel over Mr. Haugh's relations with a stenographer he had in his employ. She wanted him to dismisss the girl the eight months they quarrate down this girl and at times she we continue on less two

At these times, she ascrted, he gave everything that money could purchase but did not give his love as he should, and she said that was what she wanted.

They later went to New York city to spend a few week when the first child was thirteen months old and she was assisted in her work by a French woman who was very kind to her. While there, she declared that Mr. Haugh wanted here to return to France but she refused to do so, and after being abandoned by him, she returned to Indianapolis after he threatened to sue for a divorce, if she did go back there. After returning to Indianapolis, she said they lived together for a period of five mouths without trouble but Mr. Haugh wanted to leave her all this time and threatened to sue for a divorce. After living together for this length of time without any trouble, one night he came home a different man and from this time on things became worse, the witness asserted.

She stated she thought that "the stenographer was the cause of the trouble and went down town one night and on her return from the show she attended, stated that she saw the girl, Mary Amos of Indianapolis, come form the store at Promoting Thrift.

Uncle Sam wants his people for make thrift and saving-taught by the war-a permanent habit. To popularize wise spending, intelligent saving, and safe investment, the United States Treasury and the Department of Agriculture have prepared a series of leaflers which tell Show to distribute incomes in what reconomists consider the best way. For the small family or the large, the message on these leaflets is experted to prove helpful.

The result desired is that the American people shall spend freely, but think before they spend in order that they may get full values. These leaflets teach that wise spending involves weighing present needs and desires against future needs and desires, while intelligent saving and investment provide for future spending whether to cope with rainyday emergencies or to take advantage of sunny opportunities. Practice of these principles will make for family stability, increase individual credit and buying power and directly contribute to community and national wealth and prosperity.

What one home wastes is taken away, from the Nation's wealth and makes all homes that much poorer, the first leaflet states, and in it are enumerated the things that household thrift demands.

The seven steps which lead to saving, the second leaflet teaches, are "Know Your Needs," "Count Their Cost, Study Your Spend-Prepare a Plan, Practice Follow Precept, Keep Accounts," "Review Your Records," and "A 100% Home." The experts who prepared this series advise you to climb these seven steps toward thrift if you wish to get the most out of your income, whether it is arge or small.

This leaflet is devoted to the diision of income. Your income must pay for food-adequate, nutritious and appetizing; clothing healthful, comfortable, suitable, and attractive home-sanitary, convenient, and pleasant; operating expenses-fuel, light, and service; personal expenss-education, pleasure, and gifts: -emergency and permanent.

Under the item labeled 'Home' are the following points you are asked to consider: 'Does the house provide comfort, enjoyment, and some privacy for each member of the family? Has it light, air, sunshine, and running water? Is it easy to work in and to keep clean? Have you thought about the colors of your walls and floors? Is your furniture chosen and arranged to make the whole family comfortable?

"Your clothing", another leaflet tates, "should supply you with the following things: Protection from cold, heat, moisture, and rough surfaces: freedom in movement, breathing and standing; beauty-you will TO REORGANIZE faces: freedom in movement, breathget this by choosing materials, colors, and designs suited to you and your occupation: self- respect. Clothing which is appropriate, hecoming, inconspicious, clean, neat, and within our means, makes ourselves and our neighbors think well

A savings division has been organized in the United States Treasury at Washington to assume national leadership in the campaign for thrift and to promote the sale of War Savings Stamps. It will be composed of economists, bankers, business men, educators, publicists, and those who have made a special study of savngs in honeshold or other fields. It will cooperate direetly with the savings organizations of the Federal Reserve Districts and with all other Government agencies interested in promoting thrift. Efforts are to be made to induce the press to republish widely the material on the leaflets.

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the atrange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they cat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess fermented food, churged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it be-nomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people cat and cat and keep on cating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nour-ishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this noor nourdoesn't take long for this poor nour-ishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't art me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—head-aches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lum-bago, pains around the heart and in st-who never dream that an acid-stomach is the real cause of the trouble.

Naturally, the sensible thing to do Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloat out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belchof indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach miseries.
Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have

after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health -if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food-if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day and see how much better you will feel.

will become a museum and the grounds a municipal park. The glory of a race that once ranged North America from New York to the Gulf has passed. Its people rapidly are merging in the melting pot of the great Southwest.

As a branch of the Algenquins, the Creeks sided with the English against the Thirteen Colonies. Forced westward by the surge of white settlers, they became the backbone of the Indian uprising that General Andrew Jackson put down at the end of the war of 1812.

In 1832, after they ceded Mabama to the United States, they received a grant of 5,000,000 acres in Oklahoma and builded their first present structure stands, and on this site transpired some of the most dramatic incidents of Western history.

It was within the Council House erected in 1878 that the Mouse of Kings and House of Warriors, legislative bodies, deliberated. It was here Chief Harjo, victim, it is said. of tribal politics growing out of the Civil War, was impeached and soon afterward died of a broken heart.

It was here the oratory of David Anderson in 1893 saved the lives of Chief Legis Perryman and his treasurer, Sam Grayson. Three thousand braves, incensed at depreciation in the national warrants issued as currency, had seized the chiefs and insurrection brooded for several days despite utmost efforts to quell it.

From the second-story doorway of the Council House, Anderson harrangued the braves, and his pleato await counsels of the Great White Father at Washington broke

Not far away still stands the Execution Tree, where Creeks condemned by the conneil died.

Sale of the Conneil House is fulfillment of the supplementary treaty made between the Dawes commission and the Creeks in 1902, which provided the city should have the first chance to buy the building.

Since Oklahoma became a state in 1906, the tribe has been ruled by the county government, and its capitol building used as the Okmulgee county court house.

Although years ago the tribe sold a fifth of its domain at 30 cents an acre, it still holds some of the richest oil lands in Oklahoma.

If Your Nerves Are Shaky Because of Over-Indulgence in Tebacco or Alcohol or by Excess of Any Kind, Bin-Feren is What You Need

Don't grow old before your time, don't let nervousness wreck your happiness or chances in life. The man with strong, steady nerves is full of vigor, energy, ambition and confidence.

You can have nerves of steel, firm step, new courage and keen mind by putting your blood and nerves in first-class shape with mighty Bio-Feren, a new discov-ery, inexpensive and efficient.

Men and women who get up so tired in the morning that they have to drag themselves to their daily labor will in just a few days arise with clear mind, definite purpose and loads of ambition.

All you have to do is to take two Bio-Feren tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—7 a day for 7 days—then reduce to one after each meal until all are gone.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't doubled, if your mind isn't keener and eyes brighter, if you don't feel twice as ambitious as before, any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely.

Bio-Feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anaemic men and women ever offered and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many pack-

MRS. W. O. WALTON'S BROTHER.

Describes Fun Which he Had Out of War, Including Capture of German Prisoners.

Mrs W. O. Walton of East Ninth street has received an interesting letter from her brother, which was sent to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith of near Greenfield. The letter is from Private Joe Noland Smith, who is now with the A. E. F. and at the time of writing was stationed at Colmier Le Bas, France. Private Smith was a member of the "Traveling Sixth Division". A part of the letter is given herewith:

"We are having a good time here at present. The 'Y' gives us a show every night and hot chocolate and doughnuts three times a week. We are getting everything to eat now. Today we had real ham for dinner (and supper. We ought to have plenty to eat now for we lost plenty of good meals while at the front. You see the roads were so bad the. tracks could not travel—the Hans kept the roads blown up so they could not get things up to the front. All the bridges were blown upthey bombed one just ten minutes before we got to it.

"It is fun to think about it now and we had a lot of fun out of it then. The funniest thing was to see the Huns we captured. They were scared to death, but we did not burt them. You ought to see the Turksthey are some fighters but they are cowards. They are like an Indian to use a dagger and you have to watch them all the time. The Austrians are not much force. I would not be afraid of a hundred of those dudes for the run like jackvabbits. We did not get in gunshot of them. as we came over one hill we could see them going over the other.

"I saw in the paper where people would give a dollar to see some of the gans used in the battles. You ought to see a field after a battle and see how things are torn up.

"I am glad I got through this alive for at several times I thought the jig was up with me. The boys that got legs shot off are the ones I feel sorry for. I think I was Inchy not to get hart for many were shot down all around me. When the machine gans start they mow men down and the Germans had one stack everyplace they could stick one."

Private Smith closes by stating that he is alright and is expecting to return to the States before very

Maxwell -a car having every luxury except one

HAT luxury is brutish bigness, which means weight, which means a large gasoline tank and filled often, and large tires, and several sets a year.

Maxwell is neither a big car nor a small car. The biggest car made is less than 4 feet longer, and costs around $10,000 to buy and $5,000 a year to run.

Most cars are just a foot or a few inches longer.

And others are some smaller-shorter, lighter, less roomy, and hence lack the luxury of a Maxwell.

Nor do they cost, on the average, less to run.

Gas mileage is very nearly the same. Tire mileage is very nearly the same.

But where Maxwell earned its crowning reputation has been in its ability to run and run and never quit.

That means repair bills are amazingly low.

You therefore never get mad at a Maxwell-it's the best friend your pocketbook has. And when you stop to think of all those little points of luxury in a Maxwell you're almost sure to whip out your check book and write a check for one.

The 300,000-all-alike idea behind the Maxwell thus, you see, is sound.

Janesville Two-Row Cultivator

WHEN you sit comfortably on the easy riding Janesville Two-Row, and see every plant in every row getting exactly the cultivation you want it to have, you think what a blessing it is that you have a machine to do all that work. The old timers would think so if they could see you getting over the field so rapidly, and doing the work better than they ever did.

The Janesville Floating Arches solve the problem. They are hung by pendulums from the top bar and swing from side to side with a pendulum movement. You widen or narrow the gangs in the row with your feet. Or lock them at any width desired.

The shovels naturally follow the rows, but you can shift them to either side so quickly and so easily that you can hoe every hill without stopping the team.

Your own weight on the seat bars acts as a lever to turn the wheels slightly up hill—this big advantage takes the down-hill creep out of side-hill plowing. The entire machine is light, compact, flexible—no oiling needed except in wheel boxes.

Cultivate with a Janesville Two-Row-and you will forget that there ever was hard work in cultivation.

WEALTHY PEOPLE PROFITING

Under Scheme Postoffice Worked to Bring Farmer and City Consumer into Contact

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 6 .- The farmo-table plan of the parcel post has failed to dent the high cost of living, post-office officials admit to-

Despite the fact that when the measure was proposed in Congress its advocates declared it would bring down prices of farm products, it appears to have done nothing tovard stopping the advance of butter, eggs, poultry, ment, etc.-

"There is little indication that the pareel post will bring down war boosted prices for any great number of people," declared Director of Postoffice Ryan in an interview on the subject. He indicated the weathly people were about the only ones profiting by the parcels post

"Although the department has been working years to make this system general, people generally seem unwilling to patronize it" he said, "It's much cheaper for the consumer. It know that by personal experiment. For several years 1 have bought all my eggs from a countryman in Virginia who, by the way. I never have seen.

"When I was stationed in Philadelphia I tried to introduce the syst tem there. I first circularized the textile workers, thinking they would be glad of the chance to get produce fresh from the country at low prices. But they failed almost completely to respond.

"Then I tried the more prosporouso-called, middle class. The result was practically the same.

"Finally I circularized the rich people. They responded rather generally.

"People seem to profer to go to the corner store for their produce and pay more because it's more handy than ordering days ahead from the farmer. The farm-to-table plan has not done what the department expected of it".

Under the farm-to-table plan, the postoffice worked to bring farmer and city consumer into contact. Postmasters of many big cities had printed and distributed circulars giving the names and addresses of farmers willing to sell and deliver by parcel post their buter, eggs and Glodys Kirkpatrick, daughter of Milton W. and Margaret A. Osbornwas born at Connersville Indiana February 24, 1889.

She died of influenza pneumonia at her late home two miles west of Mays Indiana in Center Township, Legal Ads _____34 Rush County Indiana at 11:15 A. M. Saturday December 21, 1918aged 29 years 9 months and 27 days.

She was the wife of Pendleton H. Kirkpatrick. They were united in marriage Oct. 2, 1909 at Covington Kentucky, Rev. N. H. Carlisle offi-

To this union two children were forn, John Wendel who will be eight years old Jan. 19, 1919, and Floreta whose birthday happens upon the day of her mother's funeral, Dec. 23, 1918—she is seven.

The deceased has two sisters, Maud, the wife of Fred Jackson, and Myrta, the wife of Berry Rush.

Her father and mother, sisters and many other relatives and Criends remain to mourn her loss.

Her's was a well ordered life. Always an affectionate, lovable sweet tempered child, she grew into a noble conscientious womankood.

In her youth she gave her heart to Christ obeying him in the simplicity of the gospel and was added to the church worshiping at Center, Rush County Indiana, Aug. 7, 1904, J. C. Hall, minister, She loved the church and spiritual things. She endeavored to live the Christian life, and expressed a wish, as she felt her life slipping away and realized that she would soon leave her children, calling them, "my babies" requesting that they be brought up in the Sunday school.

She had a desire to live, but she said to her children, "I am going to Jesus".

She set her "house" in order. She was considerate for the feeling of

ALSO BE SONS DAY

The International Association Gladly Breaks its Former Customs This Year.

WILL AID RETURNED MEN

Asks That the Drive Will Continue for an Entire Week, With Mother's Day Climax

Mother's Day is this year to be Mother's Day and Son's Day, in order to strengthen the drive made by the United States Employment Service for jobs for soldiers and sailors which commenced with May 4, Employment Sunday "The Mother's Day International Association gladly breaks its rule of forbidding appeals to be made in its name in order to aid the Government in obtaining employment for demobilized men", says Miss Anna Jarvis, founder and president of the Association. "Mothers and jobs are the two universal forces that can most quickly and most successfully replace 3 and 1 million soldiers and sailors in civilian life. One man has wife and children to help him make the transition, another has ambition, another friends waiting to make a place for him. But none of these is an omnipresent force. None of these can secure us from an army of unemployed—or worse—such as drifted about after the Civil War because the country was not awake to its responsiblities toward its demobilized men,

"Every man in his heart reverethe mother who dreamed of a great his hands or head. Every mother is honored when profitable employment is offered the man who gave up work to enter the service of their country. Every mother has a right to feel her sacrifices have been disregarded, her high calling debased so long as a single soldier is deharred from opportunity to work. No man can be worthy of his mother while he is an outeast from the constructive forces of the country.

"Do what you can to help the United States Employment Service of the Department of Labor in its cifort to secure profitable employment for soldiers and sailors. Make a special effort during the week of May 4 to May 11. The president of the United States has issued an appeal for observance of this time for dedication to the needs of men released from service in the difficult problems of employment and industrial readjustment. Mayors and Governors are proclaiming and endorsing the appeal. Churches, Protestant and Catholic, are united in their endeavor to start an impelling drive on Employment Sunday for reemployment opportunities.

"The Mother's Day Association asks that the drive continue the eutire week and that Mother's Day May 11, be made the climax of the appeal. Let only two things be talked of in connection with the widespread observance of this day: Employment of Soldiers and Sailors, and Honor to Mothers. Neither the United States Employment Service nor the Mother's Day Association makës or countenances any plea for funds. We do ask that every church in the land in its regular and Sunday School services honor the mothers of this nation by a collection of opportunities for the employment of Service men. These employment opportunities should be listed on cards provided for the purpose, which bear the imprint of the United States Employment Service, We ask that every church, fraternal, patriotic, eivic and welfare organization which is interested in the observance of Mother's Day or the Reemployment of Soldiers assist actively in this compaign."

The Cash Value of

Public Opinion

- Like a dirty, frayed collar on a man in a $60.00 suit, an "untidy" fence discounts a fine farm in public opinion.
- And as a clean collar offsets to a great extent the frayed "hand-me-down," a Page fence adds dignity and prestige to the humblest farm home.
- Your banker, your storekeeper, your neighbors, the man who may be looking around to buy a farm—their opinions are based partly-sometimes strongly-upon what they see.
- And their opinions have a cash value that will be a big asset to you in your business transactions with them.

A PAGE FENCED FARM IS NOT ONLY THE SIGN OF A GOOD FARMER

- @ But is also reliable evidence that the good farmer HAS A GOOD FARM. The reputation of your farm is a business asset which deserves protection.

Federal Council of the Churches in America Begins a Meeting at Cleveland

WILL CONTINUE THREE DAYS

General Wartime Service Will be Reviewed With a View of Doing After-war Work

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, May 6.—The federal in America, representing thirtythree denominations and 38,000,000 communicant members, convened here today. Meetings will continue through Thursday.

*From the World War to World Brotherhood" was the general theme discussed by the 200 Protestant church leaders of the country who are attending the convention. The churches of Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium and Switzerland, also are represented.

The general war time service of the council will be reviewed with a view to proposing an after-the-war program. The following four demands of the hour upon the church will be considered:

- 1. A more effective proclamation of fundamental verities.
- 2. A new sense of world responsibility.
- 3. An effort to understand the Christian social order in America. 4 The increasing co-operation among the churches.

Tonight there will be a mass meeting in Grays armory, with an address by Robert E. Speer, chairthe I. W. W. opened here Monday man of the general war time comsubject, "The Leadership of American Protestantism in the New Internationalism." The representative of the British churches also will make an address. The sessions of the council are being held in Euclid Avenue Baptist church.
